

ASPA Receives Official Non-Profit Status

TALLAHASSEE, FL (August 14, 2024) – The AllStar Parents Association (ASPA) is proud to announce that it has officially received 501(c)(3) status from the Department of Treasury.

This significant milestone will enable ASPA to enhance its efforts and provide even greater support to the community. With this designation, ASPA is well-positioned to build a stronger future for both parents and athletes in the All Star Cheerleading community.

“We are thrilled to introduce this new association designed specifically for parents, by parents, within the All Star Community,” said Tonya Herron, Executive Director. “Achieving non-profit status is a monumental step for us and greatly enhances our ability to support and advocate for the community.

For more information about ASPA, please visit allstarpARENTS.com.

About ASPA: The AllStar Parents Association is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, managed by individuals with extensive experience in All Star cheerleading, including current parents involved in the sport. Our mission is to empower and support parents within the All Star Cheerleading community, fostering a positive and inclusive environment for all participants. We strive to be a trusted resource, advocating for excellence and unity to create a better future for All Star Cheerleading.